

Announcement

Several licensees take advantage of the early-signers incentive for the Joint License Agreement for terminals (JLAV3.0)

Stamford, UK, 15 November 2006.

Today, 3G Licensing, the licensing administrator of the W-CDMA Patent Licensing Programme, announced that several existing and new licensees took advantage of the early-signers incentive for the Joint License Agreement for terminals (JLAV3.0). JLAV3.0 is valid for the period 1 January 2004 to 31 December 2008 covering exclusively terminals (includes handsets and removeable and embedded data cards for personal computers and notebooks).

The early-signers incentive was made known to all manufacturers currently selling or planning to sell W-CDMA terminal devices (includes removeable and embedded data cards). The early-signers incentive was withdrawn to all parties, in accordance with the offer, on the 31 October 2006.

How to contact us:

All enquiries should be made via the Licensing Administrator.

E-mail: enquiries@3glicensing.com Website: www.3glicensing.com

About 3G Licensing

3G Licensing is responsible for the commercialisation worldwide of the W-CDMA Patent Licensing Programme. The scope of the programme covers the W-CDMA standards defined by 3GPP including W-CDMA FDD, High Speed Packet Access (HSPA) and the planned evolution to LTE (Long Term Evolution). 3G Licensing is incorporated in England, UK and located in Stamford, UK.